

Member News – October / November, 2015

Leaf Saltzman, Fairfield, USA

Lou Miele reported the following news: “The Fairfield, NJ based accounting firm Leaf, Saltzman LLC hosted a charity event at Liberty House in Jersey City on September 24th. The event benefitted SCOPE, a not for profit agency which sends underprivileged children to summer camp.

The event honored founding partner Donald J. Saltzman, CPA for 50 years of service to the firm. Leaf, Saltzman, formerly known as Leaf, Miele, Manganelli, Fortunato & Engel, LLP used the occasion to unveil the firm’s new brand name and logo. The event raised over $30,000 for a worthy cause.

BF Consulting, Vienna, Austria

In October, Franz Schweiger authorized an e-mail invitation from Taxlinked.net be sent to all Integra members asking if they would like to be part of a panel speaking at a webinar in November about the OECDs’ BEPS project.

Lohman Company, Phoenix, USA

On November 5 the firm celebrated their 15th year of serving clients and their community.

Glass Jacobson, Baltimore and Washington, USA

Please be advised that the firm has changed its name to Glass Jacobson Financial Group.

Leaf, Saltzman, Fairfield and New York City, USA

Please be advised that the firm has changed the way it brands itself. They are now known simply as Leaf, Saltzman LLC instead of Leaf, Miele, Manganelli, Fortunato & Engel, LLP.

Stanley Marks, Newburgh, USA and MiddletonRaines + Zapata, Houston, USA

In two separate events both of the above firms have decided to join the PKF network and will not be renewing their membership in Integra International. Stanley Marks was a founding member of Integra. We wish both firms continued success.

Atlantic Corporate Management, Hamilton, Bermuda

John O'Kelly Lynch advises that the company's business has changed so dramatically that they will not be renewing their membership in Integra International.

Swenson Advisors, San Diego, USA

Steve Austin was invited to be one of the speakers in Toronto at CPA Canada's Conference for Audit Committees in December. Steve will present What Audit Committees Need to Know About Big Data and Predictive Analytics.